

Join us at a Young Living

Introductory Meeting

Join us for a special evening as we discuss how to make essential oils part of your future! At this life-changing event, you will learn about:

- How company founder and CEO D. Gary Young discovered and researched the unique power of essential oils
- Gary's creation of Young Living Essential Oils and the company's global reach
- Our diverse, essential oil-infused product lines, including single oils and blends, personal care, nutrition, preparations for the home, and much more
- How the Young Living lifestyle can benefit you and your family

Free and open to the public! No pre-registration required!
